

MESSAGE FORWARDING SERVICE

(SEE REVERSE FOR INFORMATION TO THE RECIPIENT)

To the Requester:

Under the California Vehicle Code Section 1808.21, residence addresses on the Department of Motor Vehicles' (DMV) records are confidential and shall not be released to the general public. However, in the interest of public service, DMV offers this message forwarding service to assist you in locating someone. DMV reserves the right to review the content of the message and will not forward it if the message appears to be threatening, indecent, derogatory, or not in the best interest of the public. Recipient's response is voluntary. If your message is not forwarded, it will be returned to you for the reason indicated below.

(SEE REVERSE FOR INFORMATION TO THE REQUESTER)

Dear Recipient:

The Department of Motor Vehicles (DMV) is prohibited by law from providing residence address information from its records. In the interest of public service, DMV offers a message forwarding service to assist the public in locating someone. The party identified on the reverse side has asked that the message below be delivered to you. There is no legal requirement that you comply with the message or that you contact the person that has prepared it. DMV has not and will not release your address to the person who submitted the message.
